Goals of the Webinar

- Learn how to add value to your program through collaborating with academics to enhance your programs.
- Introduction to the new UCCI structure, Success Stories, and Best Practices
- Announce an opportunity in an upcoming institute
- Address any questions you may have.

UCCI Background

A-G Approved CTE Courses by Academic Subject Area

- UC reviews and approves courses meeting the “a-g” subject requirements for UC and CSU freshman admission.
- A portion of those courses are identified by the California Department of Education (CDE) as CTE courses.
- UC has approved some 141,000 high school courses, yet less than 200 are CTE-integrated courses in the “a-g” areas of English, math, and history.

UCCI Mission

Expand opportunities for applied learning throughout California, so all students have access to college and career preparation.

UCCI History

- UCCI's first program, the UCCI Institutes, launched in 2010.
- Funding provided by the state Career Technical Education Pathways Initiative (SB 70), and administered by the California Department of Education (CDE).

UCCI Programs

UCCI Institutes

- Courses developed collaboratively.
- Collaboration facilitated by UCCI staff.
- Free to participants; organized on demand.
- Courses have program status.

Teacher Exchange

- Preparation for teaching our courses.
- Led by teachers for teachers.
- Customized to meet participant needs.

Outcomes & Impact

- 35 courses currently on the UCCI course catalog
- 30 of these courses have been approved by local school boards and districts
- 98 California institutions of secondary education have UCCI courses on their course lists

High School Articulation

A-G Course Review and resubmission cycle

*Phase 1:
1st resubmission due by July 31
2nd resubmission due by September 15

2014 -2015

Big Changes for 2015-2016

- Launching new “a-g” database system February 2015
- Course Management Portal is being re-designed
 - Incentives for early submissions
 - Collaboration with UC Faculty to clarify and update criteria
 - Development and distribution of course evaluation rubrics aligning with criteria
 - Expanding the staff of UC Articulation Analysts
 - Increasing availability of resources

Program Status

- Courses created at the UCCI Institutes, approved by UC, will still have program status
- More courses, faster course approval, the ability to reach even more educators

Community College Courses

- “a-g” course lists are now available
 - 112 California Community Colleges
- Work in Progress

Upcoming Institute
